

Doctor Name: Dr. DR. SIRISHA RANI

Mobile: 9959985558

Clinical Survey Report

Perception mapping of Indian Physicians on Role of pegaspargase in management of ALL

Q1. How often do you recommend sunscreen for infants and toddlers in your clinical practice?

Always

Q2. At what minimum age do you typically advise starting sunscreen use in babies?

Above 3 years

Q3. Under which conditions or indications do you usually recommend sunscreen for babies?

Post-treatment for skin conditions (e.g., after topical steroids)

Q4. What key factors do you consider while recommending a baby sunscreen?

SPF value

Q5. Have you observed any common skin reactions or issues related to sunscreen use in babies?

Yes

Q6. In your experience, how receptive are parents to sunscreen recommendations for their babies?

Somewhat receptive

Q7. Which sunscreen brands do you most frequently recommend for children under 5?

hoooo

Q8. What formulation do you prefer recommending for babies?

Cream